John Maher Builders earns prestigious 2007 Best in Business Award

Spring Hill homebuilder honored by the Nashville Business Journal

SPRING HILL, TENN. – John Maher Builders, Inc. recently received the Nashville Business Journal's 2007 Best in Business Award for the 26-100 employees category. The Nashville Business Journal has recognized the hard work, dedication, and entrepreneurial spirit one of Middle Tennessee's most successful companies for twenty years.

"This is certainly an honor for our company," said Maher, who has been in the business since 1985. "John Maher Builders has always strived to offer a superior product with excellent customer service. We have an outstanding group of employees committed to this premise and of course we couldn't be a successful business without our dedicated customers."

John Maher Builders, Inc. is currently developing four communities with more than 2,600 residential units and 187 acres of commercial development worth $750 million. The company builds over 200 homes a year, and sales revenue has grown at an annual rate of 43 percent to reach $45 million in 2006. This success has led John Maher Builders to be named Williamson County's favorite homebuilder four years in a row as well as earn a place as the 27th fastest growing homebuilder in the nation in Builder magazine.
