John Maher Builders claims three Showcase of Homes awards

Spring Hill homebuilder takes honors for each entry

SPRING HILL, TENN. – On Thursday, May 3, 2007, John Maher Builders received three distinguished awards in the 2007 Showcase of Homes presented by the Homebuilders Association of Middle Tennessee (HBAMT). The Spring Hill homebuilder entered three model homes in the Showcase of Homes, which took place over the weekends of April 26-29 and May 3-6. The models entered were homes in John Maher Builders' Wakefield and Wade's Grove communities and a townhome model in the Newport Crossing community. Judging took place on April 26-27 and was conducted by HBAMT. John Maher Builders claimed honors for each of their three entries. Awards were presented for:

1. Best Craftsmanship in homes priced between $250,000 and $285,000 in the South Region. This was for the Jennifer model in John Maher Builders' Wakefield community.
2. Best Kitchen in homes priced between $290,000 and $365,000 in the South Region. This is for the all-brick Grandview II model in John Maher Builders' Wade's Grove community.

3. Best Landscaping for townhomes priced under $180,000. This was for the N-1 townhome model in the Newport Valley Townhomes section in John Maher Builders' Newport Crossing community.
